FAMILY COURT SERVICES CHILD CUSTODY RECOMMENDING COUNSELING PROGRAM APPOINTMENT LETTER INFORMATION

When a Request for Order to establish or modify child custody and visitation/parenting time is filed, the parties are referred to Family Court Services for Child Custody Recommending Counseling (CCRC). CCRC provides an opportunity for parents to work with a custody recommending counselor, either together or separately, to create a parenting plan that suits their children’s specific needs.

Family Court Services is required to send a notice of the CCRC appointment by certified mail (return receipt requested, postage prepaid) to each party’s last known address. If a party is not present to sign for the appointment letter when delivered, or a party is unable to go to the Post Office to collect it, the letter is returned to the court undelivered. Under Marin County Local Rule, 6.17, a party may choose to receive the appointment letter via email or regular first class mail (or both).

If you do not want to receive your appointment letter via certified mail, please fill out this form and submit it together with your Request for Order, or, deliver it to Family Court Services in person in Room 116 or via email at: familymediation@marincourt.org.
